Third Sunday of Easter
18th April

‘Do you love me?’ is a question Jesus puts to Peter three times in today’s Gospel passage from St. John. The Risen Lord comes to be with his disciples as they return to their old occupation of fishing. Their lack of success is transformed by the word of Jesus and they net a huge catch. They come to shore and he cooks breakfast for them. After this he puts Peter on the spot! If we think back to the night before Jesus’ death, Peter denied three times that he knew Jesus and now the Lord gives him a similar number of opportunities to redeem himself. Each time as Peter protests that he does love Jesus, the Lord commissions him to look after - and feed - his sheep and lambs. Peter experiences the quality of forgiveness radiating from the cross of Christ and is entrusted with a major task which will take him too to the cross, death and glory.

As we gather today, Easter is NOT over. The full impact of what Jesus has done for us still radiates upon us. We are in need of his forgiveness; we can find ourselves letting him down. What words would you use to respond to his question put to you personally: Do you love me? As he listens to your answer, what do you think he wants you to do for him? This passage shows us clearly that we cannot hope to manage on our own; trust in Jesus can result in marvellous things. The resurrection points us forward. Let us follow the Risen Lord to the glory which cannot be separated from the cross.

Let us pray for areas of the world where darkness looms. Let us ask the Risen Lord to shine his radiant light upon the Polish nation mourning the loss of its President and many others, upon the people of China affected by the recent earthquake and upon places where war, injustice and natural disaster bring despondency and sadness. He is our hope. He is our help.

May God bless you and your loved ones. Fr. Norbert

WESTMINSTER ECCLESIASTICAL EDUCATION FUND (WEEF) Please give as much as you can to the annual collection for the Priest Training Fund which takes place next weekend. All the money you give will be used to pay for the training of new priests. At present we are fortunate enough to have over 40 students for the priesthood. It is essential that enough money is raised to cover the cost of their training which is about £20,000 a year. We are very grateful for your generosity. Special envelopes are available at the back of the church (those in the envelope scheme should have an envelope in their box for this fund).

You can see a short film about the work of this fund on <http://www.rcdow.org.uk/donations/donate.asp?dtype=single&id=31>.

HOLY FAMILY CAFOD GROUP The CAFOD Group would like to thank Phyllis McKeough for the tremendous effort and support she gives the group with the cake sales. The cake sale held on 14th March raised £172.47.

ELECTION HUSTINGS Churches in Welwyn Garden City is hosting an Election Hustings. All of the main candidates are attending. This is a great opportunity to show that Christians are concerned to elect a government that serves its citizens well, thinks through the ethical issues of our day and promotes what is just and right. We have a chance to understand the policies of the different political parties, and the evening also gives us the chance to hear their personal perspective on different issues. An ideal time to ask the candidates questions face to face. 8pm, Tuesday 20th April, Christchurch Baptist, 110 Parkway, Welwyn Garden City. There will be questions from the floor, but people are asked to submit questions in advance to hustings@christchurchwgc.org.uk so that topics can be organised.

WELWYN HATFIELD INTERFAITH GROUP AND UNITED NATIONS ASSOCIATION ELECTION HUSTINGS Saturday 24th April from 3pm - 5pm in the Terrace Suite, Campus West. All candidates have been invited. Questions to be submitted on a postcard at the start of the event.

ST. BONAVENTURE'S CHILDREN'S TUESDAY GROUP We meet again on Tuesday from 3.45pm - 4.45pm. All welcome.

FIRST COMMUNION PARENTS have their next meeting this Wednesday 21st April at 7.30pm at Our Lady's.

USED STAMPS Please leave a border of half an inch around the used stamps you contribute for the missions. Thank you.

FUNERALS The Funeral Service (not Mass) for Pam Martin R.I.P. is at 1.30pm in St. Bonaventure's this Tuesday, (Reception of the body is on Monday at 4.30pm). The Funeral Mass for Pat Bolger R.I.P. is at 12noon in Our Lady's on Friday 23rd April. We offer our sympathy and prayers to the families and friends of Pam and Pat.
